

Lyrics to L.O.V.E.

One Voice means more than you know
Remember that you have a say
It's your one chance to channel your hopes
Don't let this chance slip away

(Cause Everyone matters)

It might seem like a whisper
Something no one else will hear

(but if we're together)

Truth grows louder and louder
Speak from your conscience with nothing to fear

L,O,V,E
Let One Voice Emerge
L,O,V,E
Let your voice be heard

(Women together)

L,O,V,E
Let One Voice Emerge

Sisters, it's time, for sure
To honor every sacrifice
Of the brave ones who've gone before
'Cause they've already paid the price

(And Everyone matters)

It might seem like a whisper
Something no one else will hear

(But if we're together)

Truth grows louder and louder
Speak from your conscience with nothing to fear

L,O,V,E
Let One Voice Emerge
L,O,V,E
Let your voice be heard

(Women together)
L,O,V,E
Let One Voice Emerge

(Cause every one matters)
It might seem like a whisper
(Women together)
Till you learn you can roar
(we can do better)
Truth grows louder and louder
Voices together
Like notes in a chord
Notes in a chord
